

Path to Possible

Path to Possible is a free employment program for Albertans who are ready to work but face barriers to getting hired. With hands-on learning, personalized coaching, and real-world experience, the program helps you prepare for work, training, or your next career step at your pace with the right support.

About the program

Path to Possible helps you move toward work with practical, hands-on support designed around your needs.

You can build job skills and confidence through:

- Work simulations
- One-on-one career coaching
- Work experience opportunities

The program also offers ongoing support after you find a job or start training, helping you stay employed, grow your skills, and plan next steps.

Who can participate?

You may be eligible if you:

- Reside in the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo
- Are 18 years or older
- Are legally able to work in Canada
- Are a Canadian citizen, permanent resident, or convention refugee
- Are unemployed or marginally employed
- Face one or more barriers to employment

Lifemark Hardin Street
#105, 9816 Hardin Street
Fort McMurray, AB TKH 493

Funded by:

*The Province of Alberta is working in partnership with the Government of Canada to provide employment support programs and services.

lifemarkvocational.ca

This program may be a good fit if you:

- Receive Income Support
- Receive AISH or ADAP
- Identify with physical, sensory, cognitive, or developmental disabilities
- Are a newcomer or internationally trained professional

About Lifemark

Lifemark is a national provider of Vocational Rehabilitation and Career and Employment Services.

Our dedicated team has been providing comprehensive services throughout Alberta for more than two decades, including vocational assessments, employability assessments, employment preparation, labour market analysis, interest and aptitude testing, transferable skills analysis, psychological and career counselling, resume preparation, computer training, job search skills development, supported job search, job placement and coaching, and more.

Lifemark is committed to strengthening the communities we serve by supporting meaningful employment, local economic growth, and the long-term economic well-being of every participant.

Let Lifemark be part of your path

To learn more, call 587-960-4689 or email path2possible@lifemark.ca.

Lifemark
Vocational Services